CHURCH MATTERS

Elder Joseph Ballou will preach at Rowland next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Good crops have caused a boom in the salaries of clergymen in Delaware and Maryland, so that it behooves the preachers to keep on praying for rain when it is needed.

A protracted meeting will begin at The Hubble Methodist church on Monday next and will continue for 10 days or two weeks. It will be conducted by Rev. P. H. Davis, who is city missionary in Louisville.

The charter of Cumberland University, at Lebanon, Tenn., was amended so as to insert the words "Presbyterian Church in the United States of America" where the words "Cumberland Presbyterian Church" appear.

Rev. Alfred A. Higgins, of this place, was formally installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Munfordsville Sunday. Mr. Higgins was honor man of the class of 1903 at Central University and recently was graduated from the seminary at Louisville. Prominent ministers and laymen of Southern Kentucky attended the installation.

Bishop John H. Vincent, of the Methodist church, created quite a sensation among the ministers in attendance at the Chautauqua at Coffeyville, Kan., by attacking evangelistic system now in vogue in most of the churches of his denomination. Bishop Vincent believes that revivals produce only temporary good, and that on account of the sensational methods used in so many of them the bad effect more than offsets the good. The venerable bishop expressed himself as standing "for genuine evangelistic effort under discreet direction," but protests with emphasis against all "sensationalism and spasmodic efforts to create an ill-balanced emotionalism and mere temporary devices for exciting enthusiasm."

J. Carroll Bailey, of Crab Orchard, sold to W. S. Drye, of Hustonville, a handsome black gelding at a fancy price.

Paris and Winchester men have effected a corner of the bluegrass seed market. It is estimated that about $500,000 is needed to finance the deal.

Best Medicine in the World for Colic and Diarrhoea.

"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter of Skirum, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a very severe attack and took half a bottle of the 25 cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by all druggists.

In Tunis, when a man wants to take another wife, he picks out a girl and then carries to her father a pair of bracelets and a pair of anklets from one of the other ladies of his household.

The bracelets and anklets are slipped on the young woman and several months are allowed for her fattening. She must fatten until she completely fills the four ornaments, or otherwise the man has a right to refuse her.

For in Tunis fat is beauty, and a permanently slender girl has no chance of marriage.

War Against Consumption.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. The genuine is in a yellow package. G. L. Penny.

In Memory of Surreida Welch.

CRAB ORCHARD, July 20th, 1907.—Another of the worthy blacks of the Crab Orchard population has "gone to that boon from whence no traveler ever returns." Surreida Welch, who was an Owsley, belonging in the times of (what is sometimes called the days of servitude) to Hon. John Samuel Owsley. She entered into the service of my sister, Catherine McAlister, in 1875, at the poor farm of Lincoln county and a more devoted, loyal servant never carried the keys of smoke-house or pantry. Poor Relda had three great, prominent traits: Truth, honesty and virtue. She would enter into no joke if funny fibs had to be told. She was as pure as the Tennyson monument of Baysoft in the solitude of the frozen zone—a monument erected by nature alone, unaided by man. Relda was one of those true, faithful and honest servants that never had to hunt a place. After living with my sister for years and waiting on my dear old mother for years, she then found a most hospitable home at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collier's and for years she followed the flag of fidelity wherever they went. Brothead or Crab Orchard, she staid with this excellent family, and never were man and woman better pleased with a servant nor servant more devoted to those whom she served. Mr. Collier and I in talking about Relda since death, agreed that for truth, honesty and virtue, she was a monument in ebony. It was true, but no monument of purest Parisian marble ever gleamed more stately and pure! What more could be said of white or black? These are certainly the three great cardinal virtues that shine in the casket of male and female character.

Although Relda married a Welch, yet Tom's mother was a Bobbitt, now Nancy Welch. Tom's mother was twice married. In 1858, when brother Jim Iand were slaves and our slaves all free and without a care, the great wedding ceremony between Nancy Bobbitt and Andrew Hubble took place in the "big house." White folks were there from all around and the colored folks from the McAlisters', Owens' and Evans' were represented. It was the event of the year, and Tom, who afterward went by the name of his step-father, "Billy Welch," was the second son born of that union of the house of Bobbitt and Hubble. And Relda marrying into the family and living with us so long always seemed like kinfolks. Whenever one like Relda leaves the earth she is entitled to a notice recounting her virtues, her truth, her honesty and fidelity more extended than I can devote to her here. Relda, you have fought a good fight, finished your course, and when you were seen approaching, no doubt heaven opened wide her eternal gates with harmonious sound on golden hinges turning.

FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT.

Was In Poor Health For Years.

Ira W. Kelley, of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any marked benefit, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse substitutes. G. L. Penny.

"The color of a book's cover helps to sell it," said a publisher. "If a row of books stands on a counter, every visitor will examine first the volume with the strongest, brightest binding—that is to say the volume bound in red.

"After red a good, clear shade of green is the most catchy color. Then comes blue, then gray."

HUSTONVILLE.

Services next Sunday morning and night at the Presbyterian church. Morning subject: "Foreordination." Evening subject: "Telling Tales." Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Christian church. Leader: Mr. George Carpenter.

"It is estimated that the sun will be able to supply the present amount of heat for at least 30,000,000 years."

Stimulation Without Irritation.

That is the watchword. That is what Orino-Laxative Fruit Syrup does. Cleanses and stimulates the bowels without irritation in any form. G. L. Penny.

Members of the Kentucky Society of Louisiana were guests of the commander of the gunboat Paducah at New Orleans, and presented the commander a big bouquet of American Beauties.

Frank Tilford, of the well-known firm of Park & Tilford, in New York, took a unique way to celebrate his birthday. He invited 760 "little mothers," poor girls who bear some of the burdens of their families, to take a trip to Coney Island, where they were introduced to the wonders of the resort at Mr. Tilford's expense.

In a collision between the passenger steamer Columbia and the steam schooner San Pedro, off the Mendocino coast of California, nearly 100 passengers lost their lives Saturday night. The Columbia was sunk and lies completely submerged in the deep waters of Shelter Cove. Capt. Doran, master of the Columbia, stayed with his vessel and is among those lost. All the women were drowned and the men saved themselves in the boats and on rafts. The collision occurred at midnight when all on board save the lookout and officer on the bridge were asleep in their berths.

The Charming Woman

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store.

KINGSVILLE.

J. L. Johnson and others are shipping large quantities of blackberries to the city market. Judging from the way Mr. Johnson has been hiring his horse and buggy out the past week, a lively stable would pay well here.

Mrs. John Horton is quite ill. Clarence Dunn, of the Q. & C., was with his wife and baby a few days. Mrs. Mary Lear and daughter, Clyde, of Narka, Kas., are guests of relatives here. Jesse D. Wearan, of Stanford, was here Monday.

In 1895 when Col. W. O. Bradley was the candidate for governor against Gen. P. W. Hardin, Hon. Augustus E. Willson, the republican nominee to-day for governor, was the leader of that notorious dark lantern society called the "A. P. A.'s" in Louisville. This is the man who the republicans have selected as their standard bearer against that sterling and splendid democrat, Judge S. W. Hager. This same Willson is the man who bolted the republican nominee for mayor of Louisville, George D. Todd; he is the same man who had his man, Senator Stege, of Louisville, bolt W. Godfrey Hunter, the republican nominee for U. S. Senator in 1895.

FROM all parts of the country President Roosevelt has, during the last few days, received postal cards urging him to reconsider his declaration of 1904 and accept another nomination for the presidency. They are rather elaborately printed, containing a picture of the White House, under which is the inscription, "Uncle Sam will renew the lease." Printed in Philadelphia, the cards have come from many States, and the growing flood of them indicates that some one has started a campaign to induce the president to change his mind.

"WHEN Wilson Takes The Stump," is the heading of an article that is going the rounds of the republican press of Kentucky. Well, what will he do when he takes it? Will he say that he will pardon Caleb Powers or any of the gang connected with the assassination of Gov. Goebel? Of course he will not. He will sing the old song that rebuilder spellbinders have sung for the past 50 years. Abuse democratic administrations, promise everything in and out of sight and wind up in November a poorer, sadder but wiser man.

COL. WILL S. HAYS, for years river editor of the Courier Journal, died in Louisville Tuesday. Col. Hays, besides being a fluent writer and a magnetic speaker, was the author of a number of ballads, "Molly Darling," "Driven From Home" and "Sweet Evangeline" being in the list. He was a warm-hearted, affable gentleman and was loved and admired by a legion of friends. Col. Hays was 70 years old and a good deal of his life was spent on the steamboats plying the Ohio and the Mississippi.

It is refreshing and reassuring to observe that Mr. Bryan has read the handwriting on the wall and will not press his government ownership proposition. It is not an immediate issue he says, but it is the ultimate solution of the problem, if federal regulation proves ineffective. As a final resort the people may agree to the innovation, but not otherwise.

THE unveiling of a monument to Oliver P. Morton, Indiana's war governor, Tuesday, was the occasion of a large gathering of veterans of the Civil War at Indianapolis. Among those attending were Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks and Gen. R. B. Brown, Commander in Chief of the G. A. R.

INTRODUCED, married and gone on their honeymoon inside of six hours, is the record made by Miss Sylvia May Hinton, of St. Louis, and Twyman Kirkpatrick, of Louisville, who performed the remarkable feat Monday. We opine it will be a case of married in haste and repent at leisure.

POLITICAL.

S. D. Van Pelt has announced for the republican nomination for Representative of Boyle.

At the Teachers' Institute in Madison a resolution asking Hon. J. A. Sullivan to run for Representative carried.

Fleming county Republicans in mass convention nominated John W. Shanklin for Representative. The Democratic nominee is Dr. W. F. Dye.

A meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee will be held at Frankfort Tuesday, next, upon a call of three members, Chairman McQuinn being absent in Europe.

Hon. Harvey Helm, Congressman from the Eighth District, has got his figures a little too high, we think. He was in Washington, D. C., last week and stated that the Democratic majority in Kentucky this year would be 40,000. Come down a few notches, Mr. Helm. The majority will be only 27,500.—Adair News.

Judge S. W. Hager issued a signed card explaining the duties of the Auditor of the State as to collections from W. J. Semonin, the former County Clerk. Judge Hager said that Mr. Semonin's indebtedness to the State amounts to $15,773.50 and whatever sums were collected by him for license taxes in July. Until the check for June collections was returned unpaid, Mr. Semonin's settlements were made as required by law "once in each month." Judge Hager said he has done his full duty as a State officer and was ready to give an accounting of his acts to the citizens of Kentucky.

Here and There.

Mrs. J. S. Robey, one of the best-known women in Franklin, is dead. Judge John H. Fryer, the oldest member of the Falmouth bar, is dead. The postoffice at Marengo, Ind., was robbed of $1,000 in stamps and money. Mrs. Claude E. Markey was burned to death at Pasadena, California, while taking an alcohol bath.

Near Marrowbone, Frank Boone, aged 12, and Harrison Bruington, 15, were drowned while bathing.

While a gang of men were digging a culvert on the Louisville & Nashville in Hardin county, the earth caved in killing Aaron Smith, of Colesburg, and seriously injuring J. B. Kinnell, of Clairmont.

The misfortunes of Frank H. Moorehead, of Fairfield, N. J. resulted in his becoming possessor of a bag of gold and silver. Moorehead was on a fishing trip. Before noon time, he had stepped in a hole and sprained an ankle, upset a canoe and nearly drowned. With no fish, he was making a short cut for home. It led him through grounds where a cottage was burned four years ago. Briers hide the path and the cellar excavation. He tumbled into the cellar and got up to vow that he would never go fishing again. Then he saw a silver sugar bowl near by. Investigation disclosed more silver, including big and little pieces, and in a crevice was a black box. It contained watches and many rings, some of them set with diamonds. The goods found by Moorehead are valued at from $2,500 to $3,000, and are supposed to have been hidden by thieves.

It was well nigh midnight when the happy guests took their departure and they then did so with much reluctance.

OUR people generally regret that Rev. L. M. Omer is to give up the pastorate at the Christian church. He will leave some time during the next six months, but wherever he goes he will carry with him the good will of the majority of those who know him. A splendid pastor, a good preacher and a thoroughly consecrated man, it will be a hard task for the officers of the Christian church to fill his place. Rev. Omer is very popular with his congregation and it is generally regretted that the church officials have deemed it expedient to engage another pastor. The life of a preacher is a hard one at best and particularly is it a trying one when his lot is cast among those who do not appreciate his efforts. We are sorry Mr. Omer is to leave us and especially do we regret that he does not do so on his own accord. He will find a good church though, for such men as he is are not without a pastorate long.

Few drunks were gathered in Monday. The arrest was something so unusual that a large crowd was attracted by the occurrence. Lancaster, once noted for her lawlessness, is now as quiet as a county grave yard, and it has all been brought about by securing officers who play no favorites and who do their duty to the letter.—Lancaster Record.

100 DAYS.—Harrison Dabner, a white man, was given 10 days in jail for jumping trains. Jailer Herrin put him to breaking rock and he skipped out. Mr. Matt Martin caught Dabner in a barn at Rowland and on being turned over to the jailer, Judge Warren gave him 90 days extra. The judge says he intends to break up both train-jumping and leave-taking and those who do either may expect to catch it as Dabner did.

At a meeting of the directors of the Crab Orchard Fair and Racing Association held at the secretary's office in Crab Orchard, Ky., July 23, a dividend of 10 per cent. was declared on their meeting of July 10, 11 and 12, 1907. All persons holding stock which has been purchased from original stockholders and which has not been transferred on the books of the association will send in their certificates to the secretary at once and have it transferred on the books, when the certificates will be returned with check for the 10 per cent. dividend. R. H. Bronaugh, sec'y.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Miss Mattie Mae Alverson, aged about 14, the bright young grand-daughter of Mrs. Mattie Alverson, of High street, was thrown from a buggy last week and sustained injuries about the head from which she has not fully recovered. She and a companion were driving a horse which was rather fractious and while making a turn the animal gave a sudden lunge. This threw the occupants out and the young lady's head was cut about the ear. She was unconscious for 45 minutes and is just now able to sit up a little. The escape was very narrow and her friends are rejoiced to know she fared no worse.—Richmond Climax.

TERRY.—Mrs. Paulina Terry, widow of W. A. Terry, died at 10 o'clock Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Young, near Highland. She was 95 years old and had been a member of the Christian church for many years. The burial occurred at Mt. Moriah at 10 o'clock yesterday.

A FREIGHT engine was badly used up, a box car sent up for repairs and Fireman Sam Hocker had a leg badly cut and was hurt about the chest in a "side-swipe" at the depot Tuesday afternoon. During the switching a car was "kicked," to the main track and the engine took the siding but there was not enough room for it to pass and as the railroad men say, the engine "side-swiped" the box car. The wreck delayed No. 22, the South-bound passenger, some 30 minutes. The wounded fireman was taken to his home at Lebanon Junction and was doing well at last accounts.

Little Ills of Children

Mothers and all others who have children about the house cannot do their families a better service than to learn of simple and reliable remedies that correct children's ailments. Many grown people are suffering today for the ignorance or negligence of those who had charge of their bringing up.

Children are prone to constipation, and if it isn't corrected early, the bowels get in the habit of not working normally and soon chronic constipation results that may last off and on all through life. Then children eat almost continually and as a consequence indigestion sets in soon followed by worms, or stomach pains, or diarrhea, or any one of a dozen other troubles. To say that it will right itself is putting altogether too much faith in chance. It is toying with the child's present and future health.

A better way is to give the child a dose of something intended to cure that very trouble, and nothing better for the purpose is known than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It never grieves but acts gently and as it has a pleasant taste the child will not refuse to take it. Buy a 50 cent or $1 bottle of your druggist and save the child from sickness. You should remember that a child whose stomach is in good working order is not likely to catch colds and fever diseases.

Mrs. Curry, of Trowbridge, Ill., attributes the remarkable health of her child to Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which she gives regularly in these disorders. Mrs. Eversole, of Hinsdale, Ill., is frank to say that the present good condition of her five-year-old boy is entirely due to this wonderful remedy. Try it in your own family and see if you cannot share these opinions. Every bottle is guaranteed to do exactly as we claim, and the purity of ingredients is also vouched for.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Matt Rigby is ill of dropsy. Dr. Penniman, of Berea College, was here in the interest of his school.

While shooting printers, please shoot the one who persists in spelling Drake's Creek "Drake," without the final s.

William Spangler, of Griffin Station, killed a large rattlesnake, which had 12 rattles and a button. For some unaccountable reason snakes are unusually scarce.

Miss Lizzie Pettus is teaching the Walnut Flat school, Miss Lucy Massy is at the Hobbs school house, Miss Maggie Culton, of Crab Orchard, at White's school house.

Mrs. Susan Edmiston is quite ill of malaria and other troubles. There are a few cases of measles and small-pox at Harmon's Lick. All of the sick and injured reported in our last letter are well or convalescent.

J. S. Pettus sold 25 210-pound hogs to B. D. Holtzclaw at $5.30. John Colson sold a nice gelding to W. D. Elmore for $90. Corn is selling here at $3 to $3.50. Meadows are below the average but hay cured nicely. Corn is looking well.

As yet no teacher has applied for the Preachersville school. Hustle up, Mr. Trustees, get a teacher and let the school begin at once. As it is the little folks will get snowbound ere a school term will have closed. On account of commencing late our schools have a meagre attendance in the Fall.

Lightning killed a steer for J. P. Ballard and maimed a fine colt for J. J. Thompson. Chas. Grigsby had a $100 mule to break its neck by jumping a fence. E. L. Sowders, who is with J. P. Ballard, can skin a steer in five minutes. After he starts the hide he attaches a mule to it and "yanks" it off; the carcass being fastened to a tree or something solid. This is a trick of the plains.

Miss Lillie Edmiston, of Louisville, is the attractive guest of her cousin, Miss Olga Cummins. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bingaman are with W. P. White and wife. Mrs. H. F. Newland, of Cedar Creek, visited her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Cummins. Dr. and Mrs. H. E. B. Hymer were guests of Mrs. Pettus. T. W. Payne, of Louisville, visited his brother, J. F. Payne. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blankenship visited at Broadhead. Miss Annie Newland, of Crab Orchard, is visiting the Misses Pettus.

Sam Ballard, of Garrard, captured a large bug on his veranda which would be hard to name. It was five inches long, as broad as a man's middle finger and its color was black at a distance, but on close inspection all the tints of the rainbow appeared; a Joseph's coat in miniature. Two horns came out of its head and were tipped with red and greatly resembled red thorns crooked and snapped together like a pair of tongs. Its eyes were as big as buckshot and very bright. We have never seen anything like this bug in any work on entomology and if we could have secured it before it was destroyed we would have forwarded it to the Smithsonian Institute.

Long Live The King!

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass. says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

A farmer pointed to a heap of soft coal. "That is for my hogs," he said.

"Fuel for them?"

"Food for them. Soft coal is excellent for hogs, being a preventative of swine disease. They like it, too. Look at that fellow."

A fat hog was ecstatically chewing a mouthful of soft coal. His eyes had a look of bliss, and from the corners of his mouth little black streams trickled.

"It's medicine," said the farmer, "but they like it. Each hog gets away with his bushel of soft coal a year."

Bad Burn Quickly Healed.

"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so," says Mrs. Robert Mytton, 457 John St., Hamilton, Ontario. "My little daughter had a bad burn on her knee. I applied Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of a burn almost instantly. It is for sale by all druggists.

Because France is without a public executioner, the death sentence given Soleillant, a fiend convicted of brutal mistreatment and murder of a little girl, probably will be given life imprisonment. The case has caused great popular indignation on account of the brutality of the crime.

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by all druggists.
